

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is appalling.

The public airways are exactly that -- for the public. For this company to use its FCC license to air partisanship views is unacceptable to me as a member of a democratic society.

Sinclair Broadcasting must make a choice: air the documentary with a balance opposing view, not air the documentary, or lose its license to broadcast anything permanently.